

Electricity Safety Week

Remember these important safety tips when around electricity

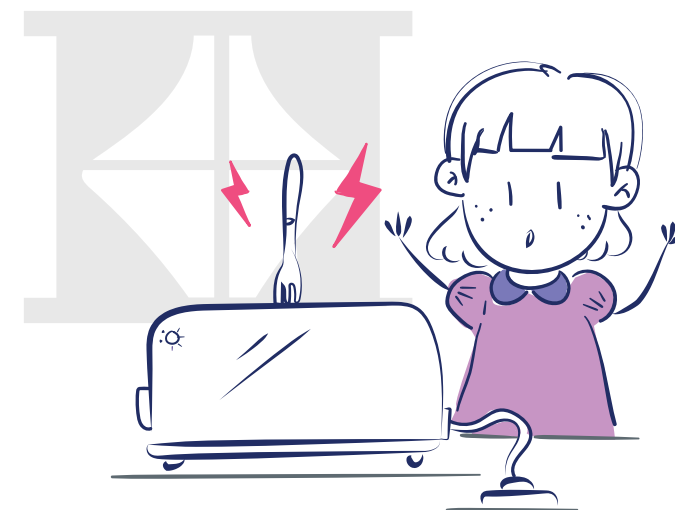

Play in open spaces away from electricity poles, towers and powerlines

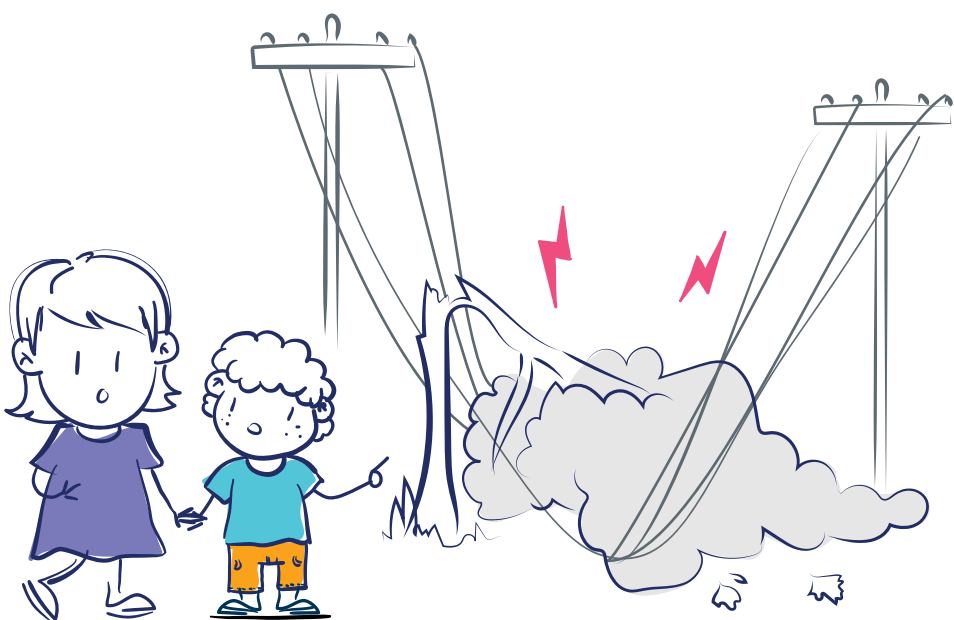

Stay away from electricity substations and power equipment

Keep water away from electrical appliances and power cords

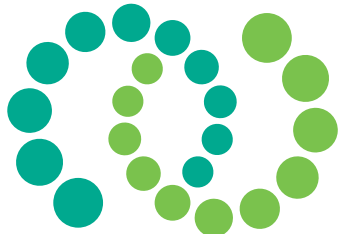

Never put a metal object into a toaster or powerpoint

If you see a dangerous situation, tell an adult

For more electricity safety information, visit endeavourenergy.com.au

 Endeavour Energy